Teachers, please encourage students to give this packet to a parent or guardian right away!

WOODSON COUNTY
Chamber of Commerce

Adopt-A-Child for Christmas
Program

Woodson County Chamber of Commerce, in partnership with local donors and volunteers, offers the Adopt-A-Child for Christmas program as a way for local families and individuals to either help those in need by donating funds or purchasing gifts for children OR receive gifts for your children if your family meets the eligibility requirements.

If you would like to participate by giving, please contact the Chamber at (620) 625-3235 or by email at director@woodsoncountychamber.org.

If you would like to participate by receiving, please fill out this application and return it to a Yates Center school OR the Chamber office at 110 N Main St in Yates Center (you can leave it in the drop box by the door if we're not there) OR send clear pictures of your entire packet to our email address: director@woodsoncountychamber.org

If you need additional wish lists, there are more available at the Chamber office and at Yates Center schools.

Please give this packet to a parent or guardian right away!

Application Deadline for families receiving gifts: November 5th, 2023
But please call us if you miss the deadline

If you would like to purchase gifts for children in need, please call us or send an email by November 11th. We will still accept requests after this date, but we may or may not be able to assign you to a family depending on the number of applicants.
